

DCM Ajit Pawar Reviews Development Projects Initiated Under 15th Finance Commission

Projects under the 15th Finance Commission should be completed on time with a vision for the next hundred years: Deputy CM Ajit Pawar directs officials

Not one rupee from the funds received under the 15th Finance Commission should go unutilised: Pawar to officials

MUMBAI, (SACHIN MURDESHWAR): Deputy Chief Minister Ajit Pawar conducted a review meeting today at the Mantralaya to assess the progress of various development projects initiated under the 15th Finance Commission. He issued firm instructions to officials to ensure a timely and high-quality completion of all projects. Ajit Pawar said to NH, "The state is receiving full support from the central government for these projects. All plans have been designed considering the requirements of the next century. Departments must coordinate closely and ensure that every rupee from the Finance Commission is utilised before the end of the current financial year, and not a single rupee is returned." Key projects discussed in the meeting included:

1. Creation of artificial coral reefs using the decommissioned INS Guldar near Sindhudurg, along with world-class scuba diving, submarine tourism, and an underwater museum,
2. Construction of Unity Mall near the international airport at Ulwe in Navi Mumbai,
3. Development of the Ram-Kal-Path in Nashik,
4. Hostels for working women in Thane, Nagpur, Navi Mumbai, Chhatrapati

Sambhajnagar, Pimpri-Development, Rural Chinchwad, Kalyan-Dombivli, Development, Disaster Solapur, and Solapur, Management, Public Health, etc.,

6. Conservation of cultural heritage,
7. Forest and wildlife management,
8. Rewas-Redi coastal highway,
9. Housing schemes for police personnel

Pawar assured the state government's full support in removing any hurdles but emphasised that all projects must be completed within the timeline and meet high-quality standards. Senior officials from the departments of Finance, Planning, Urban Development, Tourism, Public Health, Forest, and Public Works were present at the meeting chaired by Ajit Pawar.

Over 400 Join NCP under the Leadership of Ajit Pawar and Dharmaraobaba Atram

Grand Induction Ceremony in Mumbai Marks NCP's Growing Reach in Tribal Regions

Mumbai, Sapna Singh:

In a significant political development, more than 400 social and political workers from Maharashtra's Gadchiroli and Chandrapur districts officially joined the Nationalist Congress Party (Ajit Pawar faction) during a grand induction ceremony held in Mumbai. The event took place at the Mahila Vikas Mandal near Mantralaya, Nariman Point, with Maharashtra Deputy Chief Minister Ajit Dada Pawar presiding as the chief guest. Several senior leaders graced the occasion, including Nawab Malik, NCP State President Sunil Tatkare, former Cabinet Minister and current MLA Dharmaraobaba Atram, and MLA Shivajirao Garje. A large number of senior NCP office-bearers and workers were also in attendance. This political development comes ahead of the upcoming Zilla Parishad and Municipal Council elections, and is seen as a major boost for NCP in the Vidarbha region, particularly in tribal and remote areas where the newly inducted members hail from. The entire induction was held under the guidance and leadership of MLA Dharmaraobaba Atram, who is widely recognized for his grassroots public service, employment generation, and social commitment in the region. Prominent new entrants include: Nitesh Narote, Laxman Veladi, Swami Godari, Chandraya Durgam, Satyam Pidgu, Mahesh Ade, Deepak Shankar Lal Jaiswal, Nilesh Shyamrao Mankar, Rahul Ankush Devatale, Smt. Nutan

Revatkar, Krishtayya Rangayya Portet, Sheikh Farzan Alifkhar, Sheikh Abdul Rauf Abdul Ghaffar, Shaileendra Patwardhan, Vilas Sidam, Navras Sheikh, Jyoti Tai Sadmek, Surih Nana Janga, Pramod Vaidya, Anil Kerami, Vaishali Tat Palliwar, Baudha Kumar Lonare, and Namdev Udan. Speaking at the event, one of the senior inductees stated: "We have closely observed Dharmaraobaba Atram's selfless commitment to public service. His work in bringing real development to Gadchiroli and securing livelihoods for thousands is commendable. Inspired by his leadership and the development-driven vision of Ajit Dada Pawar and the Mahayuti government, we have decided to align with the NCP." The newly joined members pledged to spread the party's ideology and development agenda to every corner of Gadchiroli and Chandrapur, and to ensure that the NCP flag is raised in every upcoming election. The program also spotlighted Dharmaraobaba Atram's inspirational journey. Once held hostage by Naxalites for 17 days, Atram overcame this traumatic period and emerged as a symbol of resilience and grassroots leadership. He has since worked tirelessly to create employment opportunities, helping provide mining-related jobs to over 5,000 families in Gadchiroli. This induction ceremony in Mumbai is a clear indicator of NCP's growing influence in Vidarbha, especially among tribal and rural communities, and reflects the rising trust in leaders like Dharmaraobaba Atram. The event is likely to play a decisive role in strengthening NCP's position in upcoming elections.

Expired medicines from the Covid era are dumped in KDMC's Uburnade waste plant

The management of the plant is in a whirlwind of controversy due to lack of processing.

Kalyan, Anjali Swami:

The Kalyan Dombivli Municipal Corporation Health Department had sent expensive medicines ordered during the Covid period for disposal at the Umbarde Bio Medical Plant due to their expiry date. According to information received from official sources, expired medicines sent during the Covid period have been lying around at the Umbarde Bio-Medical Waste Plant for the last eight days, raising questions about why and for whom the medicines were not processed as bio-medical waste. Medicines worth crores were ordered to treat patients during the Corona period. These medicines were brought to treat patients during the Corona period. The unused and expired medicines in the center store of the Kalyan Dombivli Municipal Corporation's health department were sent to the biomedical plant for processing. But since these medicines were lying around for eight days, the in-charge Medical Health Officer Dr. Deepa Shukla came to the direction, When the medical bio waste at Ubande was sent for destruction, the relevant Corona era medicines were lying unprocessed for the last eight days. When the in-charge Medical Health Officer Dr. Deepa Shukla went there, she was asked why the expired Corona era medicines were not processed. When contacted, she said that she has sought written information in this regard. According to information received from sources, it is also understood that there is a shocking fact that about 70 unexpired bottles of syrup were found in this. Therefore, the question is being raised whether these syrup bottles will be reused. This incident has thrown the management of the Umbarde Bio Medical Waste Project into a vortex of controversy, and there is a growing demand from experts in the field for a thorough investigation into the matter. "In this regard, while sending expired medicines to the bio-medical waste plant, they should have been sent under the guidance of a senior. When contacted, Deputy Commissioner Prasad Borkar said that show cause notices have been served on the concerned persons in this regard."
