

Railways Reclaims 25-Crore Land in Akola, Removes 164 Encroachments After Four Decades

Akola, Shrikant Khuperkar:

In a major anti-encroachment operation, the Bhusawal Division of Central Railway on Sunday cleared 164 temporary and permanent structures from railway land in the Tarfile locality near Akola Railway Station, reclaiming approximately 22,750 square metres of land valued at around 25 crore. The encroachments had existed on the railway property for more than 40 years. Railway officials said the operation was carried out successfully between 9 am and 2 pm without any use of force, as all occupants vacated the premises voluntarily following sustained dialogue and legal procedures. The drive was the result of nearly three months of coordinated efforts by the Engineering Department, Legal Department and Railway Protection Force (RPF). The process included issuance of eviction notices, joint meetings with state authorities, land measurements, resolution of legal issues and consultations with local stakeholders. To ensure transparency, land measurements were also conducted through the State Land Records Department at the request of the occupants before the demolition was undertaken. A large security arrangement was deployed during the operation, including 300 city police personnel, 50 RPF personnel, 25 Government Railway Police (GRP) personnel, 160 engineering staff and seven JCB machines. Railway authorities acknowledged the support of the district administration, police authorities, public representatives and local citizens in ensuring the smooth execution of the drive. Officials stated that the reclaimed land would facilitate future railway infrastructure and development projects in the area, improving operational efficiency and public service delivery.

Mahayuti Finalizes Seat

Sharing Formula for Maharashtra Legislative Council Polls

leaders, the party agreed to settle for 4 seats. Similarly, the NCP faction led by Ajit Pawar and represented politically by Sunetra Pawar was expecting 3 seats but eventually had to be content with 2.

Political observers believe the final agreement reflects BJP's dominant position within the Mahayuti alliance ahead of the upcoming electoral battles in Maharashtra. The smooth conclusion of the seat-sharing talks is also being viewed as an attempt by the alliance leadership to project unity and avoid internal conflicts before the elections.

The official announcement regarding candidates for the Legislative Council polls is expected soon.

Mumbai, Ajay Upadhyay:

After several rounds of high-level discussions between leaders in Mumbai and New Delhi, the ruling Mahayuti alliance in Maharashtra has finally reached a consensus on seat-sharing for the upcoming Legislative Council elections. The alliance, comprising the Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP), the Shiv Sena led by Deputy Chief Minister Eknath Shinde, and the Nationalist Congress Party (NCP) headed by Deputy Chief Minister Ajit Pawar, has agreed on the distribution of 17 seats.

seats, Shiv Sena will field candidates on 4 seats, while Ajit Pawar-led NCP has been allotted 2 seats.

Sources revealed that the seat-sharing arrangement was finalized after multiple discussions involving senior leaders from both the state and central leadership of the alliance partners. The negotiations reportedly witnessed considerable tug-of-war, with each party staking claim over a larger number of seats.

Deputy Chief Minister Eknath Shinde was initially insisting on contesting 7 seats for his Shiv Sena faction. However, after prolonged deliberations and persuasion by senior alliance

According to the final formula worked out after intense negotiations and political bargaining, BJP will contest 11
